Performance

The company had a very positive financial year even with the highly challenging business environment in the UK. Revenue for the year ended 31 December 2022 was £935 million which is a 42% increase over the prior year (2021: £659 million), 60% increase in gross profit and 83% increase in operating profit compared to prior year. Gross margin increased from 7.8% to 8.8% due to the increased customer base while also being able to retain the current customer base. In addition, we have been able to pass on increased costs to customers, allowing us to maintain margin.

Administrative expenses rose in 2022 due to higher headcount and increased expenses to enhance the performance of the company. Increase in interest expenses is mainly due to the use of line of credit and factoring fees, both of which are related to the increase in inventory levels.

Current assets increased by £54 million. Current liabilities also increased by £31 million leaving net current assets at the year end of £104 million (2021: £80 million). Increase in current assets is mainly due to an increase debtors falling due within one year, an increase in stocks and a decrease in cash. There was also an increase in trade creditors falling within one year and increase in borrowings, which is offset by a decrease in accruals.

ENGAGEMENT WITH CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS

Building relationships and partnerships with both supplier and customers is critical to our success. Our suppliers are fundamental to the quality of our products and ensuring we meet the high-quality standards we set for ourselves. We provide open communication lines for suppliers and are in regular communication with them.

WWTUK ensures all of our business partners and suppliers are committed to conducting business with the highest possible standards in regard to ethics, labor, employee health and safety, diversity and the preservation of our environment. Our Supplier Diversity program aims to develop and sustain diverse and socially responsible business relationships, one contract at a time.

ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

WWTUK is managing the impact of the cost of living crisis, increased inflation and the war in Ukraine on our business and on the economy. In general, we do not see any material impact on the business as we are able to pass the increase in the costs of goods to our customers.

We do not have business in Ukraine or Russia and the only impact of the war on Ukraine is the increase in transportation and shipping costs which is not material to the business.

Principal risks and uncertainties

Exposure to Credit, liquidity, foreign exchange and cash flow risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss to the other party by failing to fulfil an obligation.

WWT policies are aimed to minimizing such losses & make sure that deferred payment terms are only granted to customers with proven & demonstrated appropriate payment history & satisfy credit worthiness procedure.

Liquidity risk is the risk a company may be unable to meet short term financial demands. The company aims to mitigate liquidity risks by managing cash generation by its operations.

Foreign exchange risk is the risk that costs are incurred as a result of unfavourable exchange rates. The Company is able to pass on any foreign exchange (fx) risk to our customers as we typically purchase and sell in the same currency. While there was a large fx loss in the current year, it is offset within overall Gross Profit as the selling price to our customer was higher. This is further validated by our overall Gross Margin increase from prior year.

Cash flow risk is the risk the company will not be able to generate sufficient cash flow to meet the company's financial obligations. We manage the cash flow risk mainly with the use of the line of credit facility in place and the Wells Fargo financing arrangement.

Financial Instrument risks

WWT has established a risk & financial management framework with the main objective of protecting the company from events that might hinder the achievement of the company performance objectives. The main instrument that is currently in use is the line of credit facility, Wells Fargo Financing, and factoring for big value invoices for the enhancement of the cash flow.

Director's responsibilities statement

The director is responsible for preparing the Strategic report, the Director's report, and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK & the Republic of Ireland'. Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless he is satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the situation of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Future developments

The local market is very challenging but the company still has a positive outlook and will continue to try to expand its market share within the market.

We will continue to push for new customers as well as new partners to add value to the company, while also ensuring the needs of our current stakeholders are met. While doing that we will continue to invest in the right people and right resources to ensure we are meet & exceed the needs of our stakeholders.

Going concern assessment

The Director has considered the current financial performance / position of the company and future forecasts and cash flow projections. In 2022 WWTUK made a profit after tax of £25 million, had net assets and net current assets of £104 million. There is an external financing facility via international line of credit and the company has maintained a reasonable cash position at the year-end of £17million. The value of the line of credit is $45 million (£37million) with the expiration date of April 2025. £31 million was drawn down as at December 31, 2022.

The company has grown significantly over the past year and although a decrease in the growth trajectory in the forecast for the period up to June 30, 2024, we are still expecting a good financial result during this period. The cash flow forecasts prepared to June 30, 2024 shows sufficient resources to enable the company to continue as a going concern. Reverse stress testing has been performed over the cashflow projections. The reverse stress testing indicates that scenarios under which the Company's liquidity would be exhausted have only a remote probability of occurrence.

The Director has also considered the impact of the cost-of-living crisis and increased inflation to going concern. The company is deemed an essential business and has been fully operational over this period and there is currently no indication this will change for the foreseeable future. There is no material impact on suppliers delivering products or customers making orders and no material adjustments to forecasts or projections have been required as a result of this.

Based on this, the Director has concluded that the company has sufficient resources to continue in operation for the assessment period through to June 30, 2024.

Accordingly, the financial statements continue to be prepared on going concern basis.

Director's Indemnity

WWT UK EMEA has made qualifying third-party provisions for the benefit of the Director which was in place throughout the year and remain in place at the date of this report.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF WWT EMEA UK LIMITED

Responsibilities of the director

As explained more fully in the Director's responsibilities statement set out on page 8, the director is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the director determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the director is responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the director either intends to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Explanation as to what extent the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect irregularities, including fraud. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery or intentional misrepresentations, or through collusion. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with both those charged with governance of the entity and management.

- We obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks that are applicable to the company and determined that the most significant are those that relate to the reporting framework (Companies Act 2006, FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland", Companies (Miscellaneous Reporting) Regulation 2018, Bribery Act 2010 and Money Laundering regulations, those laws and regulations relating to health and safety and employee matters and relevant tax compliance regulations in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates).
- We understood how the company is complying with those frameworks by making enquires of management and those responsible for legal and compliance procedures, including the Board of Directors. We corroborated our enquires through the review of the following documentation:
 - all minutes of board meetings held during the year;
 - the company's code of conduct setting out the key principles and requirements for all staff in relation to compliance with laws and regulations; and
 - any relevant correspondence with local tax authorities.
- We assessed the susceptibility of the company's financial statements to material misstatement, including how fraud might occur by considering the controls that the company established to address risks identified by the company or that otherwise seek to prevent, deter or detect fraud. We gained an understanding of the entity level controls and policies that the company applies.

WWT EMEA UK LIMITED
REGISTERED NUMBER: 07845692

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF WWT EMEA UK LIMITED

- Based on the results of our risk assessment we designed our audit procedures to identify non-compliance with such laws and regulations identified above. Our procedures involved testing of journal entries, with a focus on journals indicating large or unusual transactions or meeting our defined risk criteria based on our understanding of the business and review of legal correspondence.
- We assessed that revenue was a judgemental area of the audit which might be more susceptible to fraud. We obtained an understanding of the controls over the process for the recognition of revenue and tested in particular the occurrence of revenue recorded in the financial statements and any manual adjustments to the revenue.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at <https://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities>. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

2.2 Going concern assessment

The Director has considered the current financial performance / position of the company and future forecasts and cash flow projections. In 2022 WWTUK made a profit after tax of £25 million and had net assets and net current assets of £104 million. There is an external financing facility via international line of credit and the company has maintained a reasonable cash position at the year-end of £17 million. The value of the line of credit is $45 million (£37 million) with the expiration date of April 2025. £31 million was drawn down as at December 31, 2022.

The company has grown significantly over the past years and although a decrease in the growth trajectory in the forecast for the period to June 30, 2024, we are still expecting a good financial result during this period. The cash flow forecasts prepared to June 30, 2024 shows sufficient resources to enable the company to continue as a going concern. Reverse stress testing has been performed over the cashflow projections. The reverse stress testing indicates that scenarios under which the Company's liquidity would be exhausted have only a remote probability of occurrence.

The Director has also considered the impact of the cost-of-living crisis and increased inflation to going concern. The company is deemed an essential business and has been fully operational over this period and there is currently no indication this will change for the foreseeable future. There is no material impact on suppliers delivering products or customers making orders and no material adjustments to forecasts or projections have been required as a result of this.

Based on this, the Director has concluded that the company has sufficient resources to continue in operation for the assessment period through to June 30, 2024. Accordingly, the financial statements continue to be prepared on going concern basis.

2.3 Revenue

Sale of goods and services to the parent entity

Turnover relating to amounts receivable from the parent company, World Wide Technology International LLC include the transfer of product and services between entities and follow our standard accounting policies and processes.

Revenue Recognition

The Company has three main streams of revenue that are provided to its customers: product, services, and software licenses and maintenance. The Company recognizes revenue once control has passed to the customer. The Company evaluates multiple factors when determining if it is acting as principal or agent in the transaction and accordingly if revenue is recorded on a gross or net basis. The Company reviews if it is primarily responsible for fulfilling the specified goods or service and if the Company has inventory risk before the specified good or service has been transferred to a customer.

Revenue Recognition for Products

The Company's products can be delivered to customers in a variety of ways, including shipment from the Company's warehouse or via drop-shipment by the Company's suppliers. Revenues from sales of hardware products are recognized on a gross basis as the Company is acting as a principal in these transactions, with the selling price to the customer recorded as revenue and the acquisition cost of the product recorded as cost of revenue. The Company recognizes revenue from these transactions when control of the product has passed to the customer.

The Company also leverages drop-shipment arrangements with many of its suppliers to deliver products to its customers without having to physically hold the inventory at its warehouses. The Company is the principal in the transaction and recognizes revenue for drop-shipment arrangements on a gross basis.

In some instances, the customer agrees to buy the product from the Company but requests delivery at a later date, commonly known as bill-and-hold arrangements. For these transactions, the Company deems that control passes to the customer when the product is ready for delivery. The Company treats products ready for delivery when the customer has a signed bill and hold agreement, significant risk and rewards for the products has been transferred to the customer, and the products have been set aside specifically for the customer and cannot be redirected to another customer.

Revenue Recognition for Services

The company provides professional services, which include project managers and consultants recommending, designing, and implementing IT solutions. Depending on contract terms, revenue from services is recognized either on a time and materials basis as services are performed or proportionally as costs are incurred for fixed fee project work.

Revenue Recognition for Software Licenses and Maintenance

The Company, on behalf of certain suppliers, sells software licenses and software maintenance. For these transactions, the Company's obligation to the customer is that of a sales agent of the services, where all obligations for providing the services to customers are passed to the Company's suppliers. The Company's performance obligations are satisfied at the time of the sale. The Company records these transactions on a net revenue basis as the Company acts as the agent.

2.4 Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.

Depreciation is charged so as to allocate the cost of assets less their residual value over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method.

Depreciation is provided on the following basis:

Improvements to leasehold property	- 3-7 years straight line
Office equipment	- 3-7 years straight line
Computer equipment	- 3 years straight line

The assets' residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed, and adjusted prospectively if appropriate, or if there is an indication of a significant change since the last reporting date. Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognized in the Statement of comprehensive income.

2.5. Stocks

Stocks are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value, being the estimated selling price less costs to complete and sell. Cost is based on the cost of purchase on a first in, first out basis.

Work in progress and finished goods include labour and attributable overheads.

At each reporting date, stocks are assessed for impairment. If stock is impaired, the carrying amount is reduced to its selling price less costs to complete and sell. The impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss. Inventory reserve is also recorded.

2.6. Debtors

Short term debtors are measured at transaction price, less any impairment. Loans receivable are measured initially at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are measured subsequently at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment.

2.7. Bad debt provision

Accounts receivable have been reduced by an allowance for amounts that are deemed uncollectible in the future. This estimated allowance is based primarily on management's evaluation of the financial condition of the customer and historical bad debt experience. Delinquent receivables are written off based on individual credit evaluation and specific circumstances of the customer.

2.8 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash is represented by cash in hand and deposits with financial institutions repayable without penalty on notice of not more than 24 hours. Cash equivalents are highly liquid investments that mature in no more than three months from the date of acquisition and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with insignificant risk of change in value.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date in the countries where the Company operates and generates income

Deferred tax balances are recognized in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed by the Statement of financial position date, except that:

- The recognition of deferred tax assets is limited to the extent that it is probable that they will be recovered against the reversal of deferred tax liabilities or other future taxable profits; and
- Any deferred tax balances are reversed if and when all conditions for retaining associated tax allowances have been met.

Deferred tax balances are not recognized in respect of permanent differences except in respect of business combinations, when deferred tax is recognized on the differences between the fair values of assets acquired and the future tax deductions available for them and the differences between the fair values of liabilities acquired and the amount that will be assessed for tax.

Deferred tax is determined using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

2.16 Provisions for liabilities

Provisions are made where an event has taken place that gives the Company a legal or constructive obligation that probably requires settlement by a transfer of economic benefit, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are recognized to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the statement of comprehensive income in the period in which the estimate is revised where the revision affects only that period, or in the period of revision and future periods where the revision affects both current and future periods.

Performance

The company had a very positive financial year even with the highly challenging business environment in the UK. Revenue for the year ended 31 December 2022 was £935 million which is a 42% increase over the prior year (2021: £659 million), 60% increase in gross profit and 83% increase in operating profit compared to prior year. Gross margin increased from 7.8% to 8.8% due to the increased customer base while also being able to retain the current customer base. In addition, we have been able to pass on increased costs to customers, allowing us to maintain margin.

Administrative expenses rose in 2022 due to higher headcount and increased expenses to enhance the performance of the company. Increase in interest expenses is mainly due to the use of line of credit and factoring fees, both of which are related to the increase in inventory levels.

Current assets increased by £54 million. Current liabilities also increased by £31 million leaving net current assets at the year end of £104 million (2021: £80 million). Increase in current assets is mainly due to an increase debtors falling due within one year, an increase in stocks and a decrease in cash. There was also an increase in trade creditors falling within one year and increase in borrowings, which is offset by a decrease in accruals.

Building relationships and partnerships with both supplier and customers is critical to our success. Our suppliers are fundamental to the quality of our products and ensuring we meet the high-quality standards we set for ourselves. We provide open communication lines for suppliers and are in regular communication with them.

WWTUK ensures all of our business partners and suppliers are committed to conducting business with the highest possible standards in regard to ethics, labor, employee health and safety, diversity and the preservation of our environment. Our Supplier Diversity program aims to develop and sustain diverse and socially responsible business relationships, one contract at a time.

ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

WWTUK is managing the impact of the cost of living crisis, increased inflation and the war in Ukraine on our business and on the economy. In general, we do not see any material impact on the business as we are able to pass the increase in the costs of goods to our customers.

We do not have business in Ukraine or Russia and the only impact of the war on Ukraine is the increase in transportation and shipping costs which is not material to the business.

Principal risks and uncertainties

Exposure to Credit, liquidity, foreign exchange and cash flow risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss to the other party by failing to fulfil an obligation.

WWT policies are aimed to minimizing such losses & make sure that deferred payment terms are only granted to customers with proven & demonstrated appropriate payment history & satisfy credit worthiness procedure.

Liquidity risk is the risk a company may be unable to meet short term financial demands. The company aims to mitigate liquidity risks by managing cash generation by its operations.

Foreign exchange risk is the risk that costs are incurred as a result of unfavourable exchange rates. The Company is able to pass on any foreign exchange (fx) risk to our customers as we typically purchase and sell in the same currency. While there was a large fx loss in the current year, it is offset within overall Gross Profit as the selling price to our customer was higher. This is further validated by our overall Gross Margin increase from prior year.

Cash flow risk is the risk the company will not be able to generate sufficient cash flow to meet the company's financial obligations. We manage the cash flow risk mainly with the use of the line of credit facility in place and the Wells Fargo financing arrangement.

Financial Instrument risks

WWT has established a risk & financial management framework with the main objective of protecting the company from events that might hinder the achievement of the company performance objectives. The main instrument that is currently in use is the line of credit facility, Wells Fargo Financing, and factoring for big value invoices for the enhancement of the cash flow.

T W Strunk

Director's responsibilities statement

The director is responsible for preparing the Strategic report, the Director's report, and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK & the Republic of Ireland'. Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless he is satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the situation of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies for the Company's financial statements and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Future developments

The local market is very challenging but the company still has a positive outlook and will continue to try to expand its market share within the market.

We will continue to push for new customers as well as new partners to add value to the company, while also ensuring the needs of our current stakeholders are met. While doing that we will continue to invest in the right people and right resources to ensure we are meet & exceed the needs of our stakeholders.

Going concern assessment

The Director has considered the current financial performance / position of the company and future forecasts and cash flow projections. In 2022 WWTUK made a profit after tax of £25 million, had net assets and net current assets of £104 million. There is an external financing facility via international line of credit and the company has maintained a reasonable cash position at the year-end of £17million. The value of the line of credit is $45 million (£37million) with the expiration date of April 2025. £31 million was drawn down as at December 31, 2022.

The company has grown significantly over the past year and although a decrease in the growth trajectory in the forecast for the period up to June 30, 2024, we are still expecting a good financial result during this period. The cash flow forecasts prepared to June 30, 2024 shows sufficient resources to enable the company to continue as a going concern. Reverse stress testing has been performed over the cashflow projections. The reverse stress testing indicates that scenarios under which the Company's liquidity would be exhausted have only a remote probability of occurrence.

The Director has also considered the impact of the cost-of-living crisis and increased inflation to going concern. The company is deemed an essential business and has been fully operational over this period and there is currently no indication this will change for the foreseeable future. There is no material impact on suppliers delivering products or customers making orders and no material adjustments to forecasts or projections have been required as a result of this.

Based on this, the Director has concluded that the company has sufficient resources to continue in operation for the assessment period through to June 30, 2024.

Accordingly, the financial statements continue to be prepared on going concern basis.

Director's Indemnity

WWT UK EMEA has made qualifying third-party provisions for the benefit of the Director which was in place throughout the year and remain in place at the date of this report.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF WWT EMEA UK LIMITED

Responsibilities of the director

As explained more fully in the Director's responsibilities statement set out on page 8, the director is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the director determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the director is responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the director either intends to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Explanation as to what extent the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect irregularities, including fraud. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery or intentional misrepresentations, or through collusion. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with both those charged with governance of the entity and management.

- We obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks that are applicable to the company and determined that the most significant are those that relate to the reporting framework (Companies Act 2006, FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland", Companies (Miscellaneous Reporting) Regulation 2018, Bribery Act 2010 and Money Laundering regulations, those laws and regulations relating to health and safety and employee matters and relevant tax compliance regulations in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates).
- We understood how the company is complying with those frameworks by making enquires of management and those responsible for legal and compliance procedures, including the Board of Directors. We corroborated our enquires through the review of the following documentation:
 - all minutes of board meetings held during the year;
 - the company's code of conduct setting out the key principles and requirements for all staff in relation to compliance with laws and regulations; and
 - any relevant correspondence with local tax authorities.
- We assessed the susceptibility of the company's financial statements to material misstatement, including how fraud might occur by considering the controls that the company established to address risks identified by the company or that otherwise seek to prevent, deter or detect fraud. We gained an understanding of the entity level controls and policies that the company applies.

WWT EMEA UK LIMITED

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF WWT EMEA UK LIMITED

- Based on the results of our risk assessment we designed our audit procedures to identify non-compliance with such laws and regulations identified above. Our procedures involved testing of journal entries, with a focus on journals indicating large or unusual transactions or meeting our defined risk criteria based on our understanding of the business and review of legal correspondence.
- We assessed that revenue was a judgemental area of the audit which might be more susceptible to fraud. We obtained an understanding of the controls over the process for the recognition of revenue and tested in particular the occurrence of revenue recorded in the financial statements and any manual adjustments to the revenue.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at <https://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities>. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

The Director has considered the current financial performance / position of the company and future forecasts and cash flow projections. In 2022 WWTUK made a profit after tax of £25 million and had net assets and net current assets of £104 million. There is an external financing facility via international line of credit and the company has maintained a reasonable cash position at the year-end of £17 million. The value of the line of credit is $45 million (£37 million) with the expiration date of April 2025. £31 million was drawn down as at December 31, 2022.

The company has grown significantly over the past years and although a decrease in the growth trajectory in the forecast for the period to June 30, 2024, we are still expecting a good financial result during this period. The cash flow forecasts prepared to June 30, 2024 shows sufficient resources to enable the company to continue as a going concern. Reverse stress testing has been performed over the cashflow projections. The reverse stress testing indicates that scenarios under which the Company's liquidity would be exhausted have only a remote probability of occurrence.

The Director has also considered the impact of the cost-of-living crisis and increased inflation to going concern. The company is deemed an essential business and has been fully operational over this period and there is currently no indication this will change for the foreseeable future. There is no material impact on suppliers delivering products or customers making orders and no material adjustments to forecasts or projections have been required as a result of this.

Based on this, the Director has concluded that the company has sufficient resources to continue in operation for the assessment period through to June 30, 2024. Accordingly, the financial statements continue to be prepared on going concern basis.

Revenue Recognition for Products

The Company's products can be delivered to customers in a variety of ways, including shipment from the Company's warehouse or via drop-shipment by the Company's suppliers. Revenues from sales of hardware products are recognized on a gross basis as the Company is acting as a principal in these transactions, with the selling price to the customer recorded as revenue and the acquisition cost of the product recorded as cost of revenue. The Company recognizes revenue from these transactions when control of the product has passed to the customer.

The Company also leverages drop-shipment arrangements with many of its suppliers to deliver products to its customers without having to physically hold the inventory at its warehouses. The Company is the principal in the transaction and recognizes revenue for drop-shipment arrangements on a gross basis.

In some instances, the customer agrees to buy the product from the Company but requests delivery at a later date, commonly known as bill-and-hold arrangements. For these transactions, the Company deems that control passes to the customer when the product is ready for delivery. The Company treats products ready for delivery when the customer has a signed bill and hold agreement, significant risk and rewards for the products has been transferred to the customer, and the products have been set aside specifically for the customer and cannot be redirected to another customer.

Revenue Recognition for Services

The company provides professional services, which include project managers and consultants recommending, designing, and implementing IT solutions. Depending on contract terms, revenue from services is recognized either on a time and materials basis as services are performed or proportionally as costs are incurred for fixed fee project work.

Revenue Recognition for Software Licenses and Maintenance

The Company, on behalf of certain suppliers, sells software licenses and software maintenance. For these transactions, the Company's obligation to the customer is that of a sales agent of the services, where all obligations for providing the services to customers are passed to the Company's suppliers. The Company's performance obligations are satisfied at the time of the sale. The Company records these transactions on a net revenue basis as the Company acts as the agent.
