Notes to the Financial Statements
for the year ended 31 March 2024

1. STATUTORY INFORMATION

ROCC Computers Limited is a private company, limited by shares, registered in England and Wales. The company's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Company Information page.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" including the provisions of Section 1A "Small Entities" and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention as modified by the revaluation of certain assets.

The presentation currency of the financial statements is the Pound Sterling (£), which is the functional currency of the Company. Monetary amounts in these financial statements are rounded to the nearest pound.

Preparation of consolidated financial statements

The financial statements contain information about ROCC Computers Limited as an individual company and do not contain consolidated financial information as the parent of a group. The company is exempt under Section 399(2A) of the Companies Act 2006 from the requirements to prepare consolidated financial statements.

Significant judgements and estimates

Preparation of the financial statements requires management to make significant judgements and estimates and these estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The items in the financial statements where these judgements and estimates have been made include the useful economic life of tangible fixed assets, the depreciation and amortisation of these assets, stock obsolescence, provisions and recoverability of debtors.

The company's key sources of estimation uncertainty include:

(a) Pension and other post-employment benefits

The cost of the defined benefit pension scheme is determined using actuarial valuations. These involve making assumptions about discount rates, future salary increases, mortality rates and future pension increase. Due to the complexity of the valuation, the underlying assumptions and the long term nature of this scheme, such estimates are subject to significant uncertainty. Management estimates these factors in determining the net pension obligation in the statement of financial position.

Turnover

Turnover represents the fair value of consideration received or receivable and represents the amount receivable for goods supplied or services rendered. Revenue is recognised when goods are invoiced and despatched to customers or services are provided and is stated net of VAT and trade discounts.

Revenue from contracts for the provision of services is recognised over the length of the contract.

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost (or deemed cost) or valuation less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Cost includes costs directly attributable to making the asset capable of operating as intended by management.

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Plant and machinery	-	straight line over 3, 5 and 10 years
Fixtures and fittings	-	straight line over 3, 5 and 10 years
Computer equipment	-	straight line over 2, 3 and 5 years

No depreciation is provided for freehold land.

Impairment policy

At each balance sheet date, the company reviews the carrying amount of its assets to determine whether there is any indication that any items have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of an asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any. Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

Investment property

Investment property is shown at most recent valuation. Any aggregate surplus or deficit arising from changes in fair value is recognised in profit or loss.

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items.

Stocks consist of computer hardware and software licenses.

Financial instruments

Financial liabilities and equity instruments are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the entity after deducting all of its financial liabilities.

Taxation

Taxation for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the Income Statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current or deferred taxation assets and liabilities are not discounted.

Current tax is recognised at the amount of tax payable using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the statement of financial position date.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the statement of financial position date.

Timing differences arise from the inclusion of income and expenses in tax assessments in periods different from those in which they are recognised in financial statements. Deferred tax is measured using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the year end and that are expected to apply to the reversal of the timing difference.

Unrelieved tax losses and other deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that they will be recovered against the reversal of deferred tax liabilities or other future taxable profits.

Pension costs and other post-retirement benefits

The company operates two pension schemes for employees:

1. Defined contribution scheme - The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the company in independently administered funds. Contributions are charged to the profit and loss account as incurred.
2. Defined benefit scheme - To provide benefits to past and one present employee based on employees' final pensionable pay. The scheme was closed to new entrants on 1 April 1991. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the company with investment portfolio managers. Contributions are determined by qualified actuaries using the attained age method, making allowances for projected earnings.

The difference between the fair value of the assets held in the company's defined benefit pension scheme and the scheme's liabilities measured on the actuarial basis using the projected unit method are recognised in the company's balance sheet as a pension asset or liability as appropriate. The carrying value of any resulting pension scheme asset is restricted to the extent that the group is able to recover the surplus either through reduced contributions in the future or through refunds from the scheme. Deferred tax is recognised with the principles described in the deferred tax accounting policy above.

Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are charged or credited to other comprehensive income, together with the return on plan assets, less amounts included in net interest.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is recognised in profit or loss within other finance costs as 'interest on pension scheme'.

The deficit on the scheme is recognised in full and is presented on the face of the statement of financial position gross of the associated deferred tax asset.

Going concern

After reviewing the company's forecasts and projections, the directors have a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in existence for the foreseeable future. The company therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

3. EMPLOYEES AND DIRECTORS

The average number of employees during the year was 25 (2023 - 24) .

11. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS

The group and company operate two pension schemes for employees. Details of the scheme are as follows:

Defined contribution scheme

The group operates a money purchase scheme for employees of the company. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the company in independently administered funds.

Defined benefit scheme

This pension scheme, which is in respect of past employees of the company, is to provide benefits based on employees' final pensionable pay. The scheme was closed to new entrants on 1 April 1991. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the parent undertaking, being invested with investment portfolio managers. Contributions to the scheme are determined by the company based calculations prepared by independently qualified actuaries, on the basis of a triennial valuation, using the attained age method in which the actuarial liability makes allowances for projected earnings.

The most recent full actuarial valuation of the scheme was performed by the Scheme Actuary as at 1 April 2021. This valuation revealed a funding shortfall. The Company agreed to pay £100,000 pa from 1 April 2022 for a period of 31 years and 1 month, increasing at 5% pa; in addition to meeting the Scheme's administration expenses of £105,764. During the year ending 31 March 2024 the Company paid £145,000 in contributions to the scheme. The Company expects to pay £105,000 to the Scheme during the accounting year beginning 1 April 2024. The results of the 2021 valuation have been updated to 31 March 2024 by a qualified independent actuary.
